SUBJECT INDEX

A

- "a" waves, very large, rheumatic heart disease with normal rhythm and, in jugular pulse (Puddu), 708
- Acetylcholine, nonchronotropic T changes produced by (III); factors influencing T wave of electrocardiogram (Liebow and Hellerstein), 266
- Aged, persistent patent ductus arteriosus in (Fishman and Silverthorne), 762
- Aneurysm, arteriovenous, of branch of pulmonary artery (Dignam), 316
  - cardiac: clinical and electrocardiographic analysis (Moyer and Hiller), 340
  - of sinus of Valsalva with rupture into right auricle (Kawasaki and Schultz), 149
- Angiocardiography, electrocardiographic changes during (Horger et al.), 651
- Aortic-pulmonary pressure gradient, usual, atypical patent ductus arteriosus with absence of, and of characteristic murmur (Myers et al.), 819
- Arrhythmias, cardiac, esophageal electrocardiogram in study of atrial activity and (Enselberg), 382
  - utility and limitations of intravenous quinidine in (Acierno and Gubner), 733
- Arterial disease, peripheral, management of, 481 (B. Rev.)
  - thromboses, acute, involving major vessels (Denber and Stamm), 471
- Arteries, great, heart puncture in man for Diodrast visualization of ventricular chambers and. I. Its experimental and anatomophysiological bases and technique (Ponsdomenech and Beato Núñez), 643
  - occurrence of peripheral deposits of lipid in atheromatous plaques of (Wilens), 718
- Arteriovenous aneurysm of branch of pulmonary artery (Dignam), 316
- Artery, coronary, disease, of long duration, natural history of (Boas), 323
  - pulmonary, arteriovenous aneurysm of branch of (Dignam), 316
- Asthenia, neurocirculatory, extraordinary alteration of P-R interval in (Silverman and Goodman), 155
- Atresia, tricuspid, congenital (Kroop), 549 (Sommers and Johnson), 139
- Atrial activity and cardiac arrhythmias, esophageal electrocardiogram in study of (Enselberg), 382
  - flutter. II. Methods of treatment (Herrmann and Hejtmancik), 182
  - septal defect and hypertension, myxedema heart, and congestive heart failure (Allison), 620
- Auricle, left, rheumatic heart disease with massive thrombosis of (Yuskis), 144

- Auricular fibrillation, paroxysmal, due to mediastinal malignant lymphoma, unusual case of (Rawls and Ancona), 311
  - parenteral quinidine in treatment of (Berger), 624
  - with mitral stenosis, intensity of first heart sound in (Ravin and Bershof), 539
- thrombi, right, multiple pulmonary emboli from (Samet and Landman), 476
- Auriculoventricular block, complete, in myxedema with reversion to normal sinus rhythm on thyroid therapy (Schantz and Dubbs), 613
- Axis deviation, left, nature of, in congenital cardiac defects with right ventricular hypertrophy (Kroop et al.), 891
  - unusual, or left axis deviation, vectorcardiograms obtained in patients with right ventricular hypertrophy whose electrocardiograms display. IV. (Lasser and Grishman), 901

B

- Bacterial endocarditis, subacute (Reynolds et al.), 727
- Block, auriculoventricular, complete, in myxedema with reversion to normal sinus rhythm on thyroid therapy (Schantz and Dubbs), 613
- Blood flow, local, radioactive sodium ( $\text{Na}^{24}$ ) in measurement of (Semple et al.), 893
- Book reviews, 481, 642, 802
- Bundle branch block, left, and left ventricular hypertrophy: spatial vectorcardiography. II. (Scherlis and Grishman), 494
  - localized, simulation of (II); critical rates in ventricular conduction (Vesell), 46
  - prognosis in. II. Factors influencing survival period in left bundle branch block (Johnson et al.), 225
  - III. Comparison of right and left bundle branch block with note on relative incidence of each (Messer et al.), 239
  - right, transient, produced by heart catheterization in man (Simonson), 217
  - spread of excitatory process and left ventricular cavity potentials in, as studied with esophageal leads (Wener et al.), 864
  - without significant heart disease (Wolf-ram), 656

C

- "Capillary" pressure, pulmonary, factors regulating, in mitral stenosis. I. IV. (Gorlin et al.), 834

- Cardiac cycle, effect of digitoxin on apparent stroke volume, posteroanterior cardiac diameter, and, in normal subjects as studied by electrokymograph (Eddleman, Jr., et al.), 161
- defects, congenital, with right ventricular hypertrophy, nature of left axis deviation in (Kroop et al.), 891
- Cardioangiography: clinical and electrocardiographic results (II); heart puncture (Beato Núñez and Ponsdomenech), 855
- Cardiology, First International Congress of, Paris, 1950; Parts I and II; review (Sodi-Pallares and Espino-Vela), 626, 786
- manual of, 482 (B. Rev.)
- Cardiovascular system, disorders of, occurring with catheterization of right side of heart (Zimdahl), 204
- Carotid sinus pressure, unusual response to (Blumenfeld et al.), 319
- Catheterization, heart, in man, transient right bundle branch block produced by (Simonson), 217
- of right side of heart, disorders of cardiovascular system occurring with (Zimdahl), 204
- Chest and extremity lead electrocardiogram, unipolar, in children (newborn to ten years old) (Richman and Master), 687
- lead electrocardiogram, unipolar, vectorcardiographic analysis of RSR', complex of. III. (Lasser et al.), 667
- Children (newborn to ten years old), unipolar chest and extremity lead electrocardiogram in (Richman and Master), 687
- normal infants and, unipolar electrocardiogram in (Yu et al.), 91
- Circulatory dynamics in mitral stenosis, effects of exercise on. III. (Gorlin et al.), 192
- studies of. II. (Gorlin et al.), 39
- shunts, central, hydraulic formula for calculation of area of stenotic mitral valve, other cardiac valves, and. I. (Gorlin and Gorlin), 1
- Conduction, ventricular, aberrant (Langendorf), 700
- critical rates in. II. Simulation of localized bundle branch block (Vesell), 46
- III. Simulation of ventricular tachycardia (Vesell and Kraemer), 280
- Congestive heart failure, consideration of mechanism of (Burch and Ray), 918
- myxedema heart, atrial septal defect and hypertension, and (Allison), 620
- Cor triloculare biatriatum: analysis of clinical and pathologic features of nine cases (Rogers and Edwards), 299
- Coronary artery disease of long duration, natural history of (Boas), 323
- mural (Geiringer), 359
- Cumertilin, brand of mercurmatilin, new mercurial diuretic, report on (Sigler and Tulgan), 125
- Cyanosis, analysis of 114 cases of congenital heart disease with; morbus caeruleus, 642 (B. Rev.)
- D
- Dicumarol administration, evaluation of methods of (Shapiro and Weiner), 749
- Digitoxin, effect of, on apparent stroke volume, posteroanterior cardiac diameter, and cardiac cycle in normal subjects as studied by electrokymograph (Eddleman, Jr., et al.), 161
- on V leads (Beers et al.), 115
- Diodrast visualization of ventricular chambers and great arteries, heart puncture in man for. I. Its experimental and anatomophysiological bases and technique (Ponsdomenech and Beato Núñez), 643
- Diuretic, mercurial, new, Cumertilin, brand of mercurmatilin, report on (Sigler and Tulgan), 125
- Dog's heart, innervation of (Tcheng), 512
- Dynamics, circulatory, in mitral stenosis, effects of exercise on. III. (Gorlin et al.), 192
- Dystrophia myotonica, heart in (Fisch), 525
- E
- Electrocardiogram, chest and extremity lead, unipolar, in children (newborn to ten years old) (Richman and Master), 687
- lead, unipolar, vectorcardiographic analysis of RSR', complex of. III. (Lasser et al.), 667
- esophageal, in study of atrial activity and cardiac arrhythmias (Enselberg), 382
- lead, normal (Oblath and Karpman), 369
- factors influencing T wave of. II. Effects of drinking iced water (Dowling and Hellerstein), 58
- III. Nonchronotropic T changes produced by acetylcholine (Liebow and Hellerstein), 266
- Q-T interval of, in acute myocarditis in adults, with autopsy correlation (Gittleman et al.), 78
- unipolar, in normal infants and children (Yu et al.), 91
- Electrocardiograms, whose, display unusual axis deviation or left axis deviation, vectorcardiograms obtained in patients with right ventricular hypertrophy. IV. (Lasser and Grishman), 901
- Electrocardiographic changes during angiocardigraphy (Horger et al.), 651
- clinical and, analysis: cardiac aneurysm (Moyer and Hiller), 340
- complexes, interrelationship of, studied by simultaneous multiple recording (Rapaport et al.), 875
- studies of effect of histamine on cardiac mechanism (Crip and Riley), 423
- Electrocardiography, esophageal, ventricular complex in (Scherlis et al.), 246
- Electrokymogram in Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome (Dack et al.), 437

- Electrokymograph, effect of digitoxin on apparent stroke volume, posteroanterior cardiac diameter, and cardiac cycle in normal subjects as studied by (Eddleman, Jr., et al.), 161
- Emboli, pulmonary, multiple, from right auricular thrombi (Samet and Landman), 476
- Endocarditis, bacterial, subacute (Reynolds et al.), 727
- Esophageal electrocardiogram in study of atrial activity and cardiac arrhythmias (Enselberg), 382
- electrocardiography, ventricular complex in (Scherlis et al.), 246
- lead electrocardiogram, normal (Oblath and Karpman), 369
- leads, nature of RS-T segment displacement as studied with (Wener et al.), 410
- spread of excitatory process and left ventricular cavity potentials in left bundle branch block as studied with (Wener et al.), 864
- Excitatory process and left ventricular cavity potentials, spread of, in left bundle branch block as studied with esophageal leads (Wener et al.), 864
- Exercise, effects of, on circulatory dynamics in mitral stenosis. III. (Gorlin et al.), 192
